

“CIGS Mr. Jeffrey Steinberg Seminar”

Date & time: 19th January 2016 (Thursday) 15:00 - 17:00

Venue: CIGS Meeting Room

(11th Floor, ShinMarunouchi Building

5-1 Marunouchi 1-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo)

Theme: " The real story of the victory of Trump: from the eyes of grass roots political activists who had envisaged it"

Speaker: Mr. Jeffrey Steinberg
(Chief Editor, Executive Intelligence Review)

Moderator: Daisuke Kotegawa, Research Director, CIGS

Language: English

Agenda:

Opening

Speaker's lecture

Q&A

Abstract of the Speech:

In this seminar, Mr. Jeffrey Steinberg will discuss the following questions.

Who are the constituencies of Trump?

Who are total losers of the election?

Is the Hillary in 2008 different from the Hillary in 2016? What was the hidden background of 2008 election?

What are priority issues for Trump and constituencies?
Are the issues such as Obamacare, TPP, Climate Change and burden sharing of US base abroad not priority issues?
What are evaluations of appointee of new cabinet?
Will the policy regarding Russia be changed?
Will the policy regarding China be changed?
What change(s) is expected US policy on Middle East?

Speaker's profile:

Education:

B.A. Political Science, Rutgers University, New Jersey, USA 1969
M.A. Social Science, Montclair State University, New Jersey, USA, 1972

Career:

Chief Editor, Executive Intelligence Review, 1975-present. Directs an international intelligence staff of over 50 fulltime analysts, covering political economy, national security, science and technology policy. Intelligence staff located in Washington, Wiesbaden, Paris, Milan, Stockholm, Berlin, Copenhagen, New Delhi, producing a weekly intelligence journal of 64-80 pages, along with special reports currently released the New Economy, twice-weekly Alert Service, and special client studies.

Lectured on U.S. policy and international economic affairs in the United States, Mexico, Guatemala, Peru, Germany, France, Italy, India, China, Japan and Australia.

Has been interviewed frequently on radio and television, including Russia Today, Al Jazeera, Pacifica Radio, Fox TV, Canadian Broadcasting; and has contributed regular columns for Al Watan (Saudi Arabia), Al Sharq (Saudi Arabia), and a private circulating intelligence newsletter in Japan.