

CIGS Paul Goldstein Seminar

"Background Analysis on Present US-China/US-Iran Dynamics"

- Date & time: Tuesday, July 9th 2019 15:30-17:00 (Reception starts: 15:00)
Venue: The Canon Institute for Global Studies Conference room3
(11F, Shin-Marunouchi Bldg., 5-1, Marunouchi 1-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Japan)
Speaker: Paul Goldstein (ポール・ゴールドスタイン)
President and Chief Executive Officer of Pacific Tech Bridge (PTB)
Moderator: Daisuke Kotegawa, Research Director of CIGS
Language: English
Capacity: 50 participants

- Program: 15:30-16:30 Lecture
16:30-17:00 Q&A

Abstract of the Speech:

- (1) US-China:
 1. US-China: Background analysis
 2. Impact On US- Japan Alliance
 3. US shift toward Japan and building containment against China
 4. Trade, Technology and Security
 5. Trump-Xi G-20 meeting in Osaka: new insights
- (2) US-Iran :
 1. Trump Public Diplomacy: Khamenei and IRGC
 2. Deep State: Khamenei and IRGC attacks Japan tankers: Why?
 3. PM Abe's role: positives and negatives
 4. Future US-Iran Relations: Europe, Japan, Russia and China

Speaker profile: Paul Goldstein

1967-1971: Indiana State University, History and Political Science

1974-1982: Journalist and analyst for the Executive Intelligence Review, a political intelligence journal. Studied and held seminars the role of political economy-Called the American System of Political Economy. Lived in Wiesbaden, Germany. Worked in West Germany, France, Italy and Brussels.

1982-present: Political/Economic intelligence consultant. Worked with the United States intelligence community. Specialized in counterintelligence, counter-terrorism, national security strategy and foreign intelligence liaison.